*This student bulletin should be read in the English/ESL classes.
Maestros, please post this bulletin in your classroom.*

Support Our EPHS Childcare Academy at Their Food Sale in the Cafeteria Tomorrow!

Our amazing EPHS Childcare Academy teachers are trained in Waldorf Education, an internationally recognized early childhood instructional approach that emphasizes the role of imagination in learning and the intellectual, practical, and artistic development of children. On Friday, March 24 (tomorrow), these dedicated teachers will be selling delicious pupusas and yummy tacos de pollo y carne in the cafeteria during dinner as a fundraiser for their Waldorf training. Please come support our EPHS Childcare Academy teachers and their tasty offerings!!!

Spring Use of EPHS Patio

Students are encouraged to use our patio to relax and study. Students may also play any sports that do not involve tackling during non-instructional time. (Basketball, soccer, volleyball, etc. are allowed. American football and rugby are not allowed.) Soccer players are requested to play in the area between room 306 and the PE building for safety reasons. Orange cones will be set up for your convenience. Enjoy the warmer weather and extended daylight as spring is here!

Tomorrow's LE Period

LE stands for learning enrichment, your opportunity to enrich your learning on Fridays. Two options are available to you during the LE period (8:55-9:45pm) tomorrow:

LE Option 1: Meet with Your Teacher(s) – “Get Academic Support!”

If you would like to meet with your teacher for extra help or to make-up tests/assignments, please write your name on your teacher's sign-up sheet next to the classroom door. Teachers are also inviting and encouraging students to sign up.

LE Option 2: PM Student Clubs – “Learn Something New; Meet Someone New!”

EPHS Wants Your Student Feedback! – Deadline is Friday, March 24th (Tomorrow)!

Students are asked to give feedback on the Teaching Excellence Network (TEN) survey for each of their classes during the feedback window that ends Friday, March 24th. Your teacher will be setting aside time in class before the Feedback Loop deadline for students to complete the TEN surveys using iPads and/or Chromebooks.

Roger Reguerin, Student Resources Advocate

Maestro Roger will be out tomorrow and Monday. He will be back next Tuesday, March 21st.

Q3 Final Exams are Next Tuesday – Thursday, March 28 -30' 2017

Q3 final exam schedules are available at the front office. If you are unable to attend a final exam, please arrange with your teacher to take your exam during one of the make-up sessions.

Support EPHS by Coming to School and Encouraging Others to Register

Good attendance is essential for academic progress. Motivate yourselves and your classmates to keep coming to school! EPHS also encourages you to invite family and friends to attend Escuela Popular High School. Education is the way to change our lives and become a stronger community. Registration for quarter 4 is ongoing. Quarter 4 begins Monday, April 10th.
